3 (a) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise or unless waived
4 in writing by an adult, competent beneficiary, the trustee shall deliver 5 a written statement of accounts to each income beneficiary or his 6 personal representative annually. The statement shall contain at least:

7 (1) all receipts and disbursements since the last statement; and

8 (2) all items of trust property held by the trustee on the date of the 9 statement at their inventory value.

10 (b) This subsection applies to a charitable trust with assets of at least 11 five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The trustee of a charitable 12 trust shall annually file a verified written certification with the attorney 13 general stating that a written statement of accounts has been prepared

16 attorney general and any member of the general public upon request.
17 A charitable trust may not be exempted from this requirement by a

19 instrument. This subsection does not prevent a trustee from docketing 20 a charitable trust to finalize a written statement of account or any other 21 lawful purpose in the manner provided in this article. However, this 22 subsection does not apply to an organization that is not required to file

27 supervisory powers over the trust, or any other person having an 28 interest in the administration or the benefits of the trust, including the 29 attorney general in the case of a trust for a benevolent public purpose, 30 the court may direct the trustee to file a verified written statement of 31 accounts showing the items listed in section 13(a) of this chapter. The 32 petition may be filed at any time, provided, however, that the court will 33 not, in the absence of good cause shown, require the trustee to file a 34 statement more than once a year.

35 (d) If the court's jurisdiction is of a continuing nature as provided in 36 IC 30-4-6-2, the trustee shall file a verified written statement of 37 accounts containing the items shown in section 13(a) of this chapter 38 with the court biennially, and the court may, on its own motion, require 39 the trustee to file such a statement at any other time provided there is 40 good cause for requiring a statement to be filed.

41 (e) If a charitable trust or trust for a benevolent public purpose 42 is a recipient of a local development agreement payment, the

(B) the date of each disbursement;

(C) the amount of each disbursement; and

(D) the purpose of each disbursement.

(f) The trustee of a trust subject to subsection (e) shall annually file with the attorney general a verified written certification before March 1 stating that an annual report has been prepared showing at least the items listed in subsection (e). SECTION 20. IC 35-40-14 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]:

Chapter 14. Rights of Victims of Identity Deception

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "identity theft" means:

- (1) identity deception (IC 35-43-5-3.5);
- (2) synthetic identity deception (IC 35-43-5-3.8); or
- (3) a substantially similar crime committed in another jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "unit" refers to the identity theft unit established under IC 4-6-13-2.

Sec. 3. (a) A person who has learned or reasonably suspects that the person has been the victim of identity theft may contact the local law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction over the

o
p

1 person's residence. The local law enforcement agency shall take an 2 official report of the matter and provide the complainant with a 3 copy of that report. Even if jurisdiction lies elsewhere for 4 investigation and prosecution of a crime of theft, the local law
 5 enforcement agency shall take the complaint and provide the 6 person with a copy of the complaint. The law enforcement 7 authority may refer the complaint to a law enforcement agency in 8 a different jurisdiction.

9 (b) This section does not affect the discretion of a local law 10 enforcement agency to allocate resources for investigation of 11 crimes. A complaint filed under this section is not required to be 12 counted as an open case for purposes of compiling open case
 13 statistics.

14 Sec. 4. (a) A person who is injured by a crime of identity theft or 15 who has filed a police report alleging commission of an offense of 16 identity theft may file an application with the court in the 17 jurisdiction where the person resides for the issuance of a court
 18 order declaring that the person is a victim of identity theft. A 19 person may file an application under this section regardless of 20 whether the person is able to identify each person who allegedly 21 obtained, possessed, transferred, or used the person's identifying 22 information in an unlawful manner.

23 (b) A person filing an application under subsection (a) shall file 24 a copy of the application with the unit. The unit may appear at and 25 present evidence in a hearing conducted under this section if the 26 unit determines that a court order declaring the applicant a victim
 27 of identity theft would be inappropriate.

28 (c) A person is presumed to be a victim of identity theft under 29 this section if another person is charged with and convicted of an 30 offense of identity theft for unlawfully obtaining, possessing,
 31 transferring, or using the person's identifying information.

32 (d) After notice and hearing, if the court is satisfied by a
 33 preponderance of the evidence that the applicant has been injured
 34 by a crime of identity theft, the court shall enter an order 35 containing:

- 36 (1) a declaration that the person filing the application is a
- 37 victim of identity theft resulting from the commission of a
- 38 crime of identity theft;
- 39 (2) any known information identifying the violator or person
- 40 charged with the offense;
- 41 (3) the specific personal identifying information and any
- 42 related document or record used to commit the alleged offense; and

(4) information identifying any financial account or transaction affected by the alleged offense, including:

(A) the name of the financial institution in which the account is established or of the merchant or creditor involved in the transaction, as appropriate;

(B) any relevant account numbers;

(C) the dollar amount of the account or transaction affected by the alleged offense; and

(D) the date or dates of the offense.

(e) Except as provided in subsection (h), an order issued under this section must be sealed because of the confidential nature of the information required to be included in the order. The order may be opened and the order or a copy of the order may be released only:

(1) to the proper officials in a civil proceeding brought by or against the victim arising or resulting from the commission of a crime of identity theft, including a proceeding to set aside a judgment obtained against the victim;

(2) to the victim for the purpose of submitting the copy of the order to a governmental entity or private business to:

(A) prove that a financial transaction or account of the victim was directly affected by the commission of a crime of identity theft; and

(B) correct any record of the entity or business that contains inaccurate or false information as a result of the offense;

(3) on order of the judge; or

(4) as otherwise required by law.

(f) A court at any time may vacate an order issued under this section if the court finds that the application or any information submitted to the court by the applicant contains a fraudulent misrepresentation or a material misrepresentation of fact.

(g) Except as provided in subsection (h), a copy of the order provided to a person under subsection (e)(1) must remain sealed throughout and after the civil proceeding. Information contained in a copy of an order provided to a governmental entity or business under subsection (e)(2) is confidential and may not be released to another person except as otherwise required by law.

(h) The following information regarding an application filed under this section may be released to the public:

3 (c) When the offense is homicide, either the death of the victim or 6 presumed that the result occurred in Indiana.

7 (d) If the offense is identity deception or synthetic identity
8 deception, the lack of the victim's consent constitutes conduct that is 9 an element of the offense under subsection (b)(1). If a victim of identity
10 deception or synthetic identity deception resides in Indiana when a
